

You're Invited

A Talk and Concert Celebrating 1700 years of Jewish Life, History, and Culture in German Speaking Lands, and the 200th anniversary of Lewandowski's Birth

Liebe macht das Lied unsterblich!

("Love makes the melody immortal!")

The Life, Times and Music of Louis Lewandowski (1821-1894)

Buchanan Center for the Performing Arts, University of Wyoming
Sunday, November 7, 2021
5:00 PM

In Person: Open to the Public, No Admission Charge. Masking policy in effect.

LIVE STREAMING: <https://youtu.be/etrlPjMtWA4>

Lecture:

Dr. Seth Ward, University of Wyoming, Dept. of Philosophy and Religious Studies

Musical Selections:

University of Wyoming Collegiate Chorale
The Colorado Hebrew Chorale

This event marks the beginning of the third of three 2021 Campus Weeks, made possible in part by the German Embassy, UW Modern & Classical Languages, UW Religious Studies, UW School of Politics, Public Affairs & International Studies, and the UW German Club "Dahoam in Wyoming,"

Other events this week include an exhibit in the Coe Library, Art Installation on Prexy's Pasture, and a screening of Masel Tov Cocktail, Thursday Nov. 11, 7:30 PM, Classroom Building 314.